

Christian symbols

Cross: Jesus was crucified on a wooden cross and then rose from the dead (resurrection). Christians use the cross as a symbol to remember Jesus's death and resurrection.

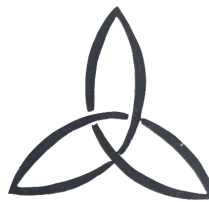

Dove: a symbol of peace. It is used in many places in the Bible as a sign from God.

Candle: the light represents God's love for the world and that goodness will shine in the darkness.

Trinity: Christians believe that God is made up of three parts all interconnected: God the Father, God the Son (or Jesus) and God the Holy Spirit.

Fish: a symbol used by some of the very first Christians which is still used today.

Anchor: a symbol to represent God's love as something that keeps us steady and stable.

